Yes, that is what I said. You can send them whenever is convenient and we would plan to start working with them when the RI goes out ~12/10. I suggest we discuss this further with Ed & Juliana on our call Monday b/c if they are minor comments, we might want to get them done now.

We talked about this at the end of our schedule call on Tues, but I don't remember your answer. When would you like me to send you the comments I have on Appendix A & C? I believe you did not want them now, because your RI team is swamped.
